Do the campers need to bring lunch?

- Lunch is included with camp tuition and is provided by Ridge Culinary Co.
- Campers can bring their lunch; it must be kosher style and nut-free

What about allergies?

- The campus is nut-free

- Blue J's Summer Camp is allergy-aware
- Campers with allergies must provide an action plan and allergy treatment. In case of needing an Epi-Pen or an Avi-Q, parents need to provide 2 (one that travels with the camper and one that stays in the nurse's office)

What is the policy for potty training?

All children entering the 3s Level (or above) must be fully potty trained. Children in our 2s levels who are not potty trained must provide diapers, wipes, and diaper cream (labeled with the child's name). Pull-ups are NOT allowed.

What is the policy for applying bug repellent or sunscreen at camp?

Counselors can only apply sunscreen and bug spray to the children if the form on Shul Cloud is signed. Please send bug repellent and bug spray labeled with your child's name.
